1. GENERAL INFORMATION

- As of September 26, 2018, the Netherlands visa application form must be completed online. The Netherlands visa application form can be filled out in Turkish, English, or Dutch.
- As of February 2, 2020, applicants can apply for a Type C Schengen visa up to 6 months before departure.
- Those who have previously provided fingerprints to enter Schengen member states do not need to apply in person as of September 25, 2014.
- If you have a valid passport, the third party to whom you have delegated power of attorney can process your application on your behalf.
- Fingerprints required for passports and ID differ from those required for visas. As a result, if you have never given fingerprints for a Schengen visa, you must apply in person.
- When it is deemed necessary, Dutch consulates may request an appointment from applicants.
- Non-EU nationals who are not obliged to have an entry visa for visits to the Netherlands will nonetheless be required to ask for prior authorization to travel to the Schengen area as of 2021. The authorization can be processed online through the European Travel Information and Authorisation System (ETIAS).
