5. GATE VISA

- The Gate Visa application is available to people of 65 countries, according to Human Rights and Law rulings issued by the Republic of Indonesia on January 12, 2010.
- When entering Indonesia through airport or port customs gates, Turkish citizens can also receive a 30-day permanent Gate Visa.
- Turkish citizens who want to spend more than 30 days in Indonesia should apply for an Indonesian visa at the Indonesian Embassy in Ankara.

1. Apply for study permit from the Indonesian Directorate General of Higher Education

Your university in Indonesia should assist you in obtaining your Study Permit from the Indonesian Directorate General of Higher Education. The following papers should be submitted in order to apply for a Study Permit:

- Three duplicates of your passport
- A copy of your university's Recommendation Letter;
- A copy of your Acceptance Letter;
- The filled-out application form;
- A recommendation letter from the Indonesian Embassy/Consulate in your home country;
- A duplicate of your academic transcript and documents;
- Your curriculum vitae;
- Two passport-sized photos
- A Letter of Financial Guarantee or a sponsorship document demonstrating your ability to fund your education and living costs; and certificate of health

Following the issuance of your Study Permit, the Directorate General of Higher Education expected to contact you.

2. Apply for an entry visa (VITAS) at the Indonesian Embassy/Consulate in your country

You can apply for your VITAS after the Immigration Department submits the visa authorization to the Indonesian Embassy or Consulate. If there is no Indonesian Embassy or Consulate in your country, you must determine which one is accountable for your jurisdiction in order to obtain information on the complete procedure of the Indonesia student visa application.

3. Change the VITAS into a KITAS (limited stay permit) at the Immigration Department after arrival in Indonesia

You must travel to the Immigration Department within 30 days of arriving in Indonesia with your VITAS in order to acquire your KITAS. Although the Indonesian Directorate General of Immigration accepts KITAS applications online, you must still visit an Immigration Office in person to pay the cost and acquire the KITAS Stamp on your passport.

You must provide the following papers to apply for a student KITAS in Indonesia: a copy of the telex visa, a copy of your Study Permit, your CV, your academic records, proof of financial responsibility from your parents, legal guardians, or a sponsor during your studies.

4. Get a Certificate of Police Registration Card

After obtaining your KITAS, you must collect the Police Report Letter (STM) from the local police department, register with the local municipality's population office, and obtain your Certificate of Registration for Temporary Resident.

To register with the police, you must provide the following documentation:

- A letter from your university requesting the Certificate of Police Registration Card;
- A letter of recommendation or a sponsorship certificate from your university;
- A copy of your passport and KITAS, as well as
- Passport-sized photographs

IMPORTANT NOTES:

*International nationals with travel papers that are not National Passports or foreign nationals without citizenship must present all applicable documents as well as a re-entry permit from the country where they are now domiciled.

*Proof of receiving the entire dosage of COVID-19 vaccination should be presented.

7. E-VISA

- The Indonesian Ministry of Law and Human Rights has established an electronic visa (e-Visa) application system to facilitate access. This e-Visa intends to help foreign tourists who want to visit Indonesia in the future and to have a beneficial influence on Indonesia's tourism and creative economy.
- The Indonesian Ministry of Law and Human Rights has created an electronic visa (e-Visa) application system to facilitate access, particularly during the epidemic of Covid-19.
- The e-Visa application system enables foreigners to apply for a visa online rather than visiting a Republic of Indonesia Representative outside of the nation or the Immigration Office.

The steps of applying visa online:

1. Click to visit website

2. Sign up

- Enter information and upload necessary papers (individual/corporate).
- Wait for the email with the username and password to arrive.
