President's Cup Football Match

As part of the 100th Anniversary of our Republic, a President's Cup Football Match was organized between the Alumni Football Team and the International Student Team. We had an exciting and enjoyable time with our alumni who came together again after a long time.

ZEYREK MOSQUE

12th century church converted into a mosque, a fine example of medieval Byzantine architecture

Zeyrek Mosque or the Monastery of the Pantokrator is a large mosque in the Zeyrek district of Fatih in Istanbul, overlooking the Golden Horn. It is made up of two former Byzantine churches and a chapel joined together and represents the best example of Middle Byzantine architecture in Constantinople. After Hagia Sophia, it is the largest Byzantine religious edifice still standing in Istanbul.
